

ENGLISH PARTY

At the end of May, our school celebrated a cultural week, and after the break, we had different activities in all the classes. As an example of an English activity, we are going to explain the "English Party" that we played in the First Cycle. Our game had four categories: drawing, mimic, questions and orders. Our teacher made cards of different colors depending on the category, and in each card we had a question to answer or a sentence or word to guess. Here you have some examples of the game. Could you do it? Try it!

DRAWING: an elephant, a crocodile, an elbow, a pencil case...

MIMIC: a cook, a fireman, a policeman or policewoman, a headmaster or headmistress, a snake, a snail...

QUESTIONS: What's your favorite number?, What's the date today?, How old are you?

ORDERS: Put a pen under the table, put a pencil in a box, put your scissors on the shelves...

OUR WORKS

Here, you have some photos of the projects done in Science and English in our school. This year we have worked very hard, and our English is better, you can check our achieves.
